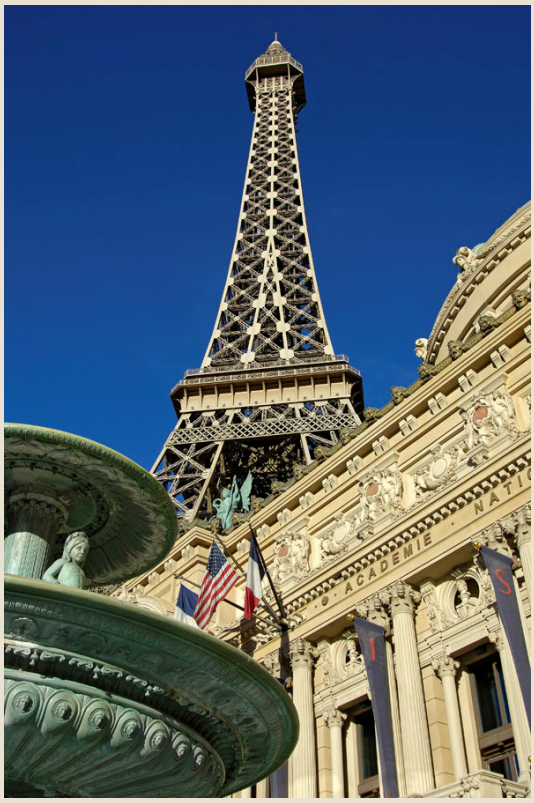
TRAVEL PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

CUYAHOGA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY & EDITING SERIES (CRN 19712)

MAY 31 & JUNE 14, 2008



JOIN IAN ADAMS, ENVIRONMENTAL PHOTOGRAPHER & AUTHOR OF 16 PHOTOGRAPHY BOOKS, FOR AN INTENSIVE, HANDS-ON TWO-DAY WORKSHOP DESIGNED TO HELP YOU TAKE SHARP, COLORFUL AND ATTENTION-GETTING PHOTOGRAPHS OF YOUR NEXT TRAVEL ADVENTURE

TOPICS:

Saturday, May 31: 8:00 am—11:30 am

- How to choose and use your digital point-&shoot or single-lens-reflex (SLR) digital camera
- Basic camera settings and travel photography guidelines
- Essential accessories
- Tips for photographing travel subjects—cities, towns, gardens, landscapes, seascapes, sunrises & sunsets, waterfalls, people, wildlife
- Traveling with your camera gear

Saturday, May 31: 1:00 pm—4:30 pm

- Join Ian Adams for a photo shoot in a picturesque Ohio Western Reserve village

Saturday, June 14: 8:00 am—11:30 am

- How to use your personal computer or Mac to fine-tune your travel photos, using Adobe Photoshop and Lightroom
- Review and critique of your digital photographs from the photo shoot

Saturday, June 14: 1:00 pm—4:30 pm

- How to share your digital photos with family and friends using email attachments, slide shows, color inkjet prints or on your website

COST: $250

HOW TO REGISTER: Call (216)-987-3075 or via email at Dawn.Grant@tri-c.edu
Limited to 15 participants

For more information about Ian Adams or the workshop, send an email to ijadams@neo.rr.com or visit www.ianadamsphotography.com